TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Training courses at Plymouth or Tavistock Venues

PAYMENT:

The training course fee is £60 for 6 week course, this covers as follows:

- The first session without your dog, unless asked to bring it along, this session is at least two hours long and is a discussion and demonstration night.
- Four more hour long sessions at the training venue for the 6 week course
- One session on a Saturday/Sunday to teach recall at the Rock at Yelverton.
- The format of the course will be teaching the following using either clicker training or just food or toys as rewards. Sit, down, stand, stays in sit and down, recall, lead walking, handling and grooming, socialising with the group.
- You will receive by hand, email or post a number of written information sheets to help with your dog's upbringing, welfare and education.

The course fee is to be paid up front by cheque or postal order payable to J. Jones and sent to me with your booking form as confirmation of your attendance.

An email or letter will then give you the times and dates for all the course sessions along with the venue.

Cancellations

If you change your mind about the course and decide you cannot attend you must let me know 48 hours prior to the course starting for a full refund. Less than that and you will only receive half the fee paid for the course.

If you have attended one or more of the sessions I do not refund if you decide that you cannot attend the rest of the course.

If you do decide not to come to the classes I ask that you inform me why, this can enable me to discuss it with you and try to help in any way to work through any problems you may have with attending the course.
